Note by the secretariat

1. To help facilitate coordination of activities of Governments and organizations at the national, regional and global levels, the United Nations Environment Programme developed a master list of actions on the reduction and/or elimination of the releases of persistent organic pollutants, the first edition of which was distributed at the third session of the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee held in September 1999 (UNEP/POPS/INC.3/INF/9). The second edition of the master list (UNEP/POPS/INC.4/INF/5) was distributed at the fourth session of the Committee in March 2000. The third edition of the master list (UNEP/POPS/INC.5/INF/5) was distributed at the fifth session of the Committee in December 2000.
2. The fourth edition of the master list is attached and has not been formally edited.
